

we missed you in July and we know you missed us but the long wait is over,
it's hot, it's sticky, it's humid and we're back, smelling better than ever.
Yes, you guessed it, it is time for the August mailer from

Fabulous Disaster

" . . . and there will be no mercy "

When we last left you, Chris was shopping for new equipment and a new guitarist, well . . . he found both and you'll be sorry and you won't be sorry, respectively. The swelling in Eric's ankle has gone down (too bad we can't say the same about his head) and David has thoroughly shed his winter fur, so we are ready for some sweltering, steamy, sticky (we just love sticky) and hot gigs. We will be showcasing our new guitarist ASAP (we can't promise anything at this point), his name is Danny and he will soon be throwing some serious guitar licks your way. At the time of the printing of this mailer, we only have two gigs lined up but we will keep you informed of any others that might come our way.

as usual, all shows start on time and last approximately 45 minutes

This place is new and is run by the same friendly people that manage The Pool Bar (which, by the way, is now called The Underworld). And we all know how much fun the Pool Bar can be. Tom Jax (the owner of the club) has said that this is a respectable bar and restaurant (so why did he book us?) and that we will not be able to play as loud as we usually do (what a bummer!, but there won't be any broken windows and bottles won't be rattling off the tables) so you don't need your earplugs, but considering the neighborhood, do bring your bullet-proof bib. So come down and celebrate the grand opening of this new club. There will be lots of fun and debauchery because we wouldn't want to let you down.

and it just wouldn't be summer without a gig at Lauterbach's. The very word conjures up images of beer, pool sticks, the smell of beer, tight jeans on nubile young women with exposed midriffs, the taste of beer, greasy fried food, that cool feeling of beer spilled on my shoes, and mindbending rock n' roll. Will Chris have the testicular fortitude to try out his new equipment at this popular Park Slope dump? Will we have any ear drum left if he does? Will the sonic boom of his new Mesa/Boogie amp bring the extremely low ceiling down? And what about Mary Lou? The answers to all these questions and more can only be found at Lauterbach's on Saturday, August 15th at 10pm.

Fabulous Disaster would like to thank all of our friends and fans for your support and for the great turn out at the last Underworld gig (special thanks to Kinesis and her unique powers)!!!
