

We're baaaaaaaack

FABULOUS DISASTER

"Just when you thought it was safe to go out again"

Did you miss us? We certainly missed you. No, we're not dead yet, we took some time off to record and get our lives together. Band members update: The Spring shaving of David's back was witnessed by some anthropologists and since then David has been under study at the NYU Anthropology and Genetics Departments to see if he is actually human or maybe a living missing link, some have proposed that he is a sasquatch (bigfoot). As soon as we know, you'll know. Eric is still trying to "find himself." We think he has joined the Hare Krishna's since he shaved his head and traded in his drums for a tambourine, either that or his mid-life crisis is in it's fifth year or both. Chris recently made some decent coin selling a dance mix of Peggy to the "shoot first, negotiate later" FBI and ATF. It seems they used this particular song in addition to Tibetan monk chants, recordings of rabbits being slaughtered, and Nancy Sinatra to try to drive the Branch Davidians out of their complex. (The Nancy Sinatra would've gotten us out in seconds). One unidentified FBI official who was against storming the complex (there were about two out of a thousand or so) said, "one more day of Peggy and they would've broke." Anyways, at least Koresh went out in a blaze of glory, when you're hot, you're hot; better to burn out than fade away, right?

At these next shows we will be pushing the Reaction CD being put out by Thom Jack of Underworld and Street Level fame. This disc will feature only the finest of the sick bands that have played these two clubs. We feel very privileged to have been asked to put a track on this disc. We will continue to record this summer in hopes of putting out a CD by Fall. That way you can take the fun and debauchery home with you. What a thought!!

as usual, all shows start on time and please mention FABULOUS DISASTER when you come through the door, don't worry, we aren't getting any money, but the club owners like to know whether people are just stumbling in or coming to see the band.

THURSDAY, MAY 6th 8:45 p.m.

Street Level

5 Ave. A (Ave. A & Houston, NW corner)

$5 cover 388-0560 5-8 Happy Hour

Take the F train to 2nd Ave. or the 6 train to Bleeker Street. Fab Dis partying tip #1: With a two-for-one happy hour, if you get there early and start drinking, by the time we start playing, you're plenty drunk (just right for heckling) and you've only spent half the money you would've spent to get this drunk. Try it, it's fun.

FRIDAY, MAY 14th 8:45 p.m.

Less than a week later, we're back. Hopefully the structural integrity of the club will hold up to two Fabulous Disaster gigs in one week. They did cover the glass in front of the club after Eric started that riot back in March. But even though you can't watch crime as it happens on the street while safely inside the club, the place is still fun.
